Re: *United States v. Cesar Cruz Vargas, S2 19 Cr. 635 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

At the request of defense counsel, the Government writes to request that the Court adjourn the sentencing in this matter and all sentencing-related deadlines by approximately ninety days. The defendant requires additional time to consider certain sentencing issues and to allow additional time for discussions with counsel, which are made more difficult during the pandemic. The Government consents to this request.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request a ninety day adjournment of the sentencing, currently scheduled for January 8, 2021, and all sentencing-related deadlines.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
